

JEFFERSON AWARDS

Nominate a Volunteer

As a Not-For-Profit, you couldn't exist without the volunteers who help you carry out your mission.

Here's your chance to let someone know how much you appreciate all they do for you.

The American Institute for Public Service was created in 1972 by Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis, U.S. Senator Robert Taft Jr. and Sam Beard.

This public foundation established the Jefferson Awards, a Nobel Prize for Community and Public Service.

The Jefferson Awards are presented locally by the Times Union, WNYT-TV and St. Peter's Health Partners.

Covid permitting, the finalists will be recognized at a dinner reception in April.

One of our honorees will be designated to represent the Capital District at the National Awards in Washington in June 2021.

If you have an extraordinary person that you would like to nominate, go to:

timesunion.com/jeffersonawards

Deadline for nomination is February 23, 2021.